

Wednesday Night Lecture Series Information

The Wednesday Night Lecture series shows DVDs from “The Great Courses” which is a series of college-level video courses presented by distinguished professors and produced and distributed by The Teaching Company. Each lecture is 30 minutes long and two lectures are presented each Wednesday evening at 7 p.m. in the auditorium.

The DVDs are donated by residents or purchased by the Residents Association. Titles of current lectures are published in The Brittany Pointer. For more information see the contact person.
