

Writers Group

The Writers Group is offered to residents who want to hone their writing skills. The class, taught by an experienced instructor, explores styles of memoirs, creative writing, poetry and other areas of interest. Students complete writing assignments, have a chance to learn from one another through the editing and critiquing processes, safely guided by the instructor. The group welcomes all residents but limits participants to ten at a time. Signup is required.

Please see one of the Contact Persons for more information.
